• Remove the plug from the liquid filled syringe using the tool embedded in the blister tray bottom, push and turn counter-clockwise.

a) Attach the syringe to the spike.
b) Inject all solution into the vial.

• Gently swirl to dissolve the vancomycin powder.

a) Fully retract blue handle.
b) Lock plunger by turning blue collar clockwise to click.

• Do not remove the red stopper until ready to inject.