

BONESUPPORT appoints Michael Wrang Mortensen to EVP R&D and Operations

Lund, Sweden, 11:00 CET, 211011 – BONESUPPORT™, an emerging leader in orthobiologics for the management of bone injuries, announced today that changes are being made to the management team. On December 1, 2021, Michael Wrang Mortensen will begin the newly installed role of Executive Vice President Research & Development and Operations.

Michael holds a PhD degree in Chemistry from University of Copenhagen and an executive MBA from the AVT Business School in Denmark. Michael has 15 years of experience from the Medical Device and Healthcare industry with solid leadership and management experience within global innovation, product development and operations. Michael joins BONESUPPORT from his role as Director Development & Supply at Nanovi A/S.

The newly installed role means that Dr. Michael Diefenbeck leaves the responsibility for R&D to fully focus on his role as Chief Medical Officer and EVP Medical Affairs & Clinical Affairs and that Johan Olsson leaves his role as EVP Manufacturing & Supply for a role as Senior Advisor.
